

Attention Medfield Voters:

Medfield is changing its polling place location. Beginning with the town election scheduled for March 31, 2008, voting for the town of Medfield will be located at the new senior center off West Mill Street. Called "The Center at Medfield", the new facility can be reached by taking West Mill Street to the new Ice House Road. All those who have voted at the Ralph Wheelock School on Elm Street must now vote at the new location. West Mill Street can be reached from either Harding Street or West Street.
